CALLING FOR VOLUNTEERS

Your Weekly Facilities Management Bulletin

FM UPDATES

Learn more about the event here.

To be eligible, drivers must have a valid driver's license and a UNM rest areas for a comfortable experience.

the cycling routes, while Rest Stop drivers transport supplies to designated

Volunteer drivers are still needed for Support and Gear (SAG) drivers or Rest

University Stadium. 100% of funds raised will go directly to the cancer patient

On September 23, 2023, the Lobo Cancer Challenge will bring together

Facilities Management FM.UNM.

dedication and expertise in overseeing facility operations. We thank him for Albuquerque. Leo has been an invaluable team member, demonstrating

UNM as he has accepted a position with Dekker, Parish, and Sabatini in

Maintenance

$100,000 for Collaborative Arts and

Upgrade the outside.

Test and change detector batteries.

Create a safety kit for your kids.

Recently, all the existing light poles

necessary.

since lamp replacements are no longer

and decreased maintenance needs

consumption, better lighting shielding,

For more information, please contact Kristina Rucker @ 505 performances of the UNM Symphony Orchestra; Friday, Aug. 4 at 7 p.m.

NMPBS

HD)

host Gene Grant talks to the Line

from the 1945

Conversations on the Edge: The Atomic Bomb, Consequences of the Western History Society (NHFWS).

28, 2024 and will include a major exhibition,

Pueblo Revolt in the Southwest: April 16, 1680.

Whether you whip up traditional

The University of New Mexico is once again teaming up with El Mezquite

for Collaborative Arts and

Are hands-on activities with a variety of agencies.

Open to adults, ages 18 and older.

learned much about prior to enrolling in the

•

The University of New Mexico's Department of

UNM Department of Physics and Astronomy receives $750,000 grant ground on

The University of New Mexico’s Department of

through the

to advancing architectural design and cultural understanding. Learn more

5.1

Authority, is responsible for these health services. The county, through the behavioral health services to MDC inmates.

UNM Hospital will now provide medical services at MDC

Learn more

The Student Activities Center at The University of New Mexico

address themes such as elections, imperialism, solidarity, human rights, and

Puerto Rico, Mexico, Panama, Nicaragua, and Spain among a few. CSWR collection items on display at Albuquerque Museum Exhibit

UNM Architecture and Planning Chair receives Best of Practice Award

The University of New Mexico. Learn more

Fall 2020

NMiF discusses past fire, future of water and healthcare

The University of New Mexico. Learn more

13th year

Annual Mezquite Golf Tournament returns for 13th year

President's Ice Cream Social and Department's Information Day can sign up campus has to offer. Departments wishing to participate and table during the

the East side of the football stadium

As of August 2, four out of six poles on

Regarding the West side, the contractor is expected to finish setting anchor bolts mats and plywood should be installation on August 3, along with the two poles were scheduled for the West side of the stadium

As of August 2, four out of six poles on

was no longer

since lamp replacements are no longer

and decreased maintenance needs

consumption, better lighting shielding,

For more information, please contact Kristina Rucker @ 505

are being scheduled. Keep an

5.1

Upgrade the outside.

Test and change detector batteries.

Create a safety kit for your kids.

Recently, all the existing light poles

necessary.

since lamp replacements are no longer

and decreased maintenance needs

consumption, better lighting shielding,

For more information, please contact Kristina Rucker @ 505